A stack of several gold coins is placed on top of a document that appears to be a financial statement or ledger. The document has columns with various numerical entries and some text labels like 'BOND', 'YIELD', and 'PERCENT'. The coins are stacked vertically, with the top coin showing its edge and some of its face. The background document is slightly out of focus, emphasizing the coins.A close-up photograph of several Euro coins, including a 1 Euro coin and a 2 Euro coin, resting on a document. The document has some text visible, including "KABRANCHSKO" and "969,31".
